

Are you getting the most from your core systems?

We are here to help you improve and extend your core systems.

Optimize your current technology landscape by integrating with and extending the reach of your existing lines of business applications.

of CIOs and IT pros surveyed say low code is effective in increasing efficiency.¹

Your teams have innovation at their fingertips with Microsoft Power Platform.

We provide a host of low-code solutions to help ensure your core systems are optimized to interact together seamlessly and to provide you with agility and flexibility in your processes.

Improve processes and user experience across your company's core systems like SAP, Oracle, and Salesforce.

Extend your core systems

with apps, flows, chatbots and dashboards to fill gaps and deliver flexibility.

Get more out of your existing investments with a modern solution that keeps the user experience seamless and extends the life of your core systems.

Together we can help you:

Quickly build solutions on top of your core systems data with 1000+ prebuilt connectors

Build custom connectors

to consume and expose data through a secure gateway

Prebuilt templates and flows enable makes to quickly build solutions for common process

Extend your core systems

with native integration to the Microsoft ecosystem including Azure and Microsoft 365

With Power Platform, the Global Finance team at EY has reduced lead times by 95% integrating with their existing SAP ERP system.²

See How

As a trusted Microsoft partner, we can empower you to extend your LOB systems and increase your business agility to deliver simple, modern and powerful experiences across your data and processes on any device.

Reach out today, to learn more.